

Manufacturer's warranty

You've got our word! We stand behind our product and our reputation for quality. As a Gretsch customer, you have placed your confidence in a percussion musical instrument that is manufactured with you, the player, in mind.

Should a question arise concerning a warranty replacement or repair, notify your Gretsch Dealer and take the product to him/her for inspection along with the original bill of sale. Your authorized Gretsch Dealer is not an agent or independent contractor of Gretsch but may be able to correct certain defects covered by this warranty. If your dealer is unable to correct a defect covered by this warranty, the dealer will contact Gretsch for instructions regarding the return of the product for factory inspection and evaluation.
